

Press Release

For immediate Release: Friday August 13, 2010

Abbotsford, BC - The Métis Nation British Columbia (MNBC) congratulates Minister Chuck Strahl, MP as the newly appointed Minister for Transportation, Infrastructure and Communities.

President Bruce Dumont stated, “It is with sincere appreciation and recognition of the past relationship between the Métis Nation British Columbia and Chuck Strahl, as former Minister for Indian & Northern Affairs Canada and Interlocutor for Métis and Non Status Indians; that heartfelt congratulations are extended on behalf of the MNBC Board of Directors and staff on his recent appointment.

It is MNBC’s hope, that the positive working and personal relationships fostered through the work undertaken to date, in building stronger self-sustainable communities, will translate well with the Ministry for Transport, Infrastructure and Communities, and that the Minister and the Métis Nation British Columbia can continue to work together to benefit and create future opportunities for Métis Citizens in BC.
